

I am very, very unhappy about
Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary just days before the election.

This decision is a clear example of the dangers of media
consolidation.

When large companies
control the
airwaves, we get more of what's good for those with political and financial power and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules.

Do we want to be another Saudi Arabia?
